Geneva Science-Policy Platform on Environment and Security

First meeting of the Scientific Council

25 November 2016

Room 4, International Environment House I

Draft agenda

14:00 – 14:15

Welcome and Introduction

14:15 – 15:00

Environment and Security: Setting the Context

The meeting participants will be introduced to the Science-Policy Platform on Environment and Security and the issues of environment and security concern that will be proposed for further discussion by the Scientific Council. Meeting participants will be invited to make their interventions on the subject and speak of their relevant topic of research.

15:00 – 16:00

Facilitated discussion on the challenges and opportunities of knowledge-to-policy transformation

Participants will be invited to think creatively on the ways to ensure the translation of the abundant, yet scattered knowledge on environment and security linkages into organized, actionable policy recommendations.

16:00 – 17:00

Outlining of future steps

Inspired by the preceding brainstorming session, the participants will be encouraged to recommend next steps for the Scientific Council to develop recommendations for the plenary event of the Science-Policy Platform that will be scheduled in the first half of 2017.
