

American Red Cross

International
Humanitarian Law

H2O in the Crosshairs: Water Resources & Armed Conflict

When armed conflict erupts, what happens to one of the planet's most precious and limited resources? Join the American Red Cross IHL Program and Mara Tignino of Geneva Water Hub as we explore how armed conflict affects water resources, from direct targeting of water infrastructure to water's impact on building durable peace.

October 13th at 12 p.m. ET

REGISTER