

LL.M. in Chinese Law

<http://www.law.ruc.edu.cn/llm/>

<ABOUT US>

With China's rapid economic growth and rising international prestige, Chinese law has become an essential source of knowledge as well as a valuable instrument for international students and legal professionals who have business, cultural, academic and political communication with China. Thus, Renmin Law School has established the LL.M. Program in Chinese Law to meet the needs of the international community to gain an inside view of Chinese law from a first-rate legal institution in China.

The Master of Laws (LL.M.) Program in Chinese Law is a two-year English Graduate Program taught in English offered by Renmin Law School. This Program provides an invaluable opportunity for a selected group of students and professionals with at least a bachelor's degree, to broaden and deepen their knowledge and understanding of Chinese Law and Chinese legal practice.

The program is interested in attracting intellectually curious and thoughtful candidates from a variety of legal systems and backgrounds and with various career plans.

The duration of the program is 2 years. The first year is full-time coursework with class attendance. It focuses on Chinese civil and business laws. The second year is set aside for dissertation writing, legal practice and internship. The students can either choose to stay in China or return to their own residence in the second academic year.
