General information

Programme of courses: <https://wwwi.unige.ch/cursus/programme-des-cours/web/teachings>

Please select your courses carefully. Your study plan can be slightly adapted once in Geneva, but it can not be changed!

Can I take courses in a Faculty/Institute other than the Faculty/Institute considered for my exchange ?	Yes but only 1 additional Faculty. Support French Courses do not count as an extra Faculty (see hereunder > Language skills)
As a Bachelor student, can I take Master-level courses ?	No* , except for the Law and Theology Master-level courses are restricted to graduate students and based on availability
Can I take courses in a Faculty if this is not my field of study?	- Geneva School of Economics and Management - Faculty of Law - English Literature/English Linguistics >>students must be registered (major) in this field in their home University
Are Master of Advanced Studies (MAS) and Continuing Education programmes open for exchange students ?	No
I am interested in taking seminars. Are they open for exchange students ?	Yes but some may be limited and/or have restrictions in the number of students.
Can I have access to TP (practical work / travaux pratiques) ?	Yes but on request only and access is not guaranteed (No ECTS for the Faculty of Humanities); several restrictions for FPSE
Is it possible to take Research Project courses ("projet de recherche")	No
Some seminar or courses does not have a final grade but only the mention fail/pass. Is it possible to convert the mention to a (numerical) grade?	No Verify with your home university if they recognize the ECTS obtained by this mean.

Few exceptions could be authorized for students in their 4th year of studies*

Please note that all exams must be taken at the University of Geneva within the period specified by each Faculty.

Specific information & restrictions by Faculty

FACULTÉ DE DROIT Faculty of Law

Enrollment at the faculty of law as host faculty is restricted to students already registered in Law in their home university.

Students registered in the faculty of law as host faculty are allowed to attend Bachelor and Master courses at the faculty of law, regardless on their level.

They are not allowed to take more than two courses per semester in another faculty (e.g. 3 courses in law and 3 courses in GSEM is not allowed).

Students registered in another host faculty can attend courses at the faculty of law as long as they meet the requirements of their host faculty.

Access to specific courses (seminars, “ateliers” ...) is subject to availability of places and the agreement of the professor in charge of the course. Please contact first the Secrétariat des étudiants (secretariat-etudiants-droit@unige.ch) to check the availability before contacting the professor.

Study plan & schedule: www.unige.ch/droit/etudiants/programme-et-calendriers/plan-etudes/

More information: <https://www.unige.ch/droit/mobilite/geneve/enseignements/>

Students registered for the Certificate in Transnational Law must have completed at least 2 years (or 120 ECTS) in legal studies and be fluent in English or French (min. B2).

For the Certificate in Transnational Law, it is necessary to register at the Faculty of Law, in addition to registering online. Please complete the form (see the following link) and send it to the contact mentioned: www.unige.ch/droit/transnational/en/admission/#toc1

FACULTÉ DES LETTRES Faculty of Humanities

English Literature and English Linguistics: students must be registered (major) in this field in their home University to access the courses.

General:

specific information is available here: www.unige.ch/lettres/en/etudes/mobilite/

For students who wish to take French Literature courses, we strongly recommend a C1 French level. Exchange students can create their own study plan. Four ECTS credits are awarded for each semester-long course, seminar or course-seminar that is successfully completed (evaluated and graded). The above conditions apply only to exchange students.

ÉCOLE DE LANGUE ET DE CIVILISATION FRANÇAISES (ELCF) School of French Language and Civilization

The ELCF: www.unige.ch/lettres/elcf/enseignements/filieresenseignement is part of the Faculty of Humanities; it offers a new programme specially dedicated to exchange students who are studying French as a major or minor at their university and who want to consolidate the B1/B1+ level:

- The ADI (Année d'immersion): full-time or part-time programme, for the whole academic year or the Fall Semester.

Two other programmes are accessible to students who have chosen French as major part of their academic cursus and have passed the B1 and B2 levels respectively:

- The AP (Année propédeutique – “propedeutic year” in French), for the whole academic year or the Fall Semester.
- The DEFLE (Diplôme d'études de français langue étrangère), for 1 or 2 semesters.

It is possible to combine these programmes with some courses from other Faculties.

The number of ECTS credits awarded for each course varies but is based on three credits for a 2-hour course. The final choice of courses must be validated by the ELCF academic advisor at the beginning of the semester (Francoise.Zay@unige.ch).

Improve your French during the exchange: www.unige.ch/coursappui/

FACULTÉ D'ÉCONOMIE ET MANAGEMENT (GSEM) Geneva School of Economics and Management

Bachelor Students are not allowed to take Master courses.

Master Students can only take Master courses.

The course catalogue is available here: www.unige.ch/gsem/en/students/study-plans/

Bachelor Students may have their access to the following courses restricted: 'S240008 - Soft skills', 'S240001 Institutional Project A' and 'S240010 Institutional Project B'. Registration is subject to availability (priority being given to GSEM regular students).

Core courses from the Master in Business Analytics and all courses from the Master in Commodity Trading are not open for exchange students.

Other restrictions may apply. In particular on cross-curricular courses, workshops and internships. As the offer of such courses is subject to annual changes, the restrictions will be announced on a case-by-case basis directly to the student when he/she submits his/her proposal for a course of study.

FACULTÉ DES SCIENCES Faculty of Sciences

The places for TP courses (practical work) can be limited. Please contact the responsible teacher for the admission.
