

GECOPOL_Graduate

IV Geneva Graduate Conference in Political Philosophy

16 and 17 February 2023

Department of Political Science & International Relations, University of Geneva

M6020, M4220, Uni-Mail.

Programme

☞ 16.02.2023 ☞

☞ 13:00 Welcome Address ☞

Emanuela Ceva (Université de Genève)

Keynote Talk – M6020

Seth Lazar (Australian National University)

Communicative Justice and the Distribution of Attention

Chair: Emanuela Ceva (Université de Genève)

14:30 - 15:45 Graduate Session 1

A. M6020 – Legitimacy I: Epistemic Issues | Chair: Patrizia Pedrini (Université de Genève)

- Benjamin Swift (University College Dublin) A Case for Reasonableness over Epistemic Competence as a Political Legitimation Criterion
- Amaël Maskens (Université Catholique de Louvain-la-Neuve), Equality Over Competence? An Epistemological Argument Against the Priority of the Epistemic Requirements of Democracy

B. M4220 – Progress and Perfectionism | Chair: Francesco Chiesa (Université de Genève)

- Charlie Blunden (Utrecht University), The De-Naturalisation Mechanism: Conventionality, Status-Quo Bias, and Moral Progress
- Kyle Van Oosterum (University of Oxford), Perfectionism, Free Speech and the Echo Chamber

☞ 15:45 - 16:00 Break ☞

16:00 - 17:15 Graduate Session 2

A. M6020 – Automation | Chair: Maria Carolina Jimenez Garcia (Université de Genève)

- Juan Olano Azpiroz (Université Catholique de Louvain), On Tech-lumpenproletarians as a Challenge for the Republican Theory of Justice
- Anna Katharina Boos (Universität Zürich), Conceptualizing Automated Decision-making

B. M4220 – Migration & Territory | Chair: Melis Pinar Akdag (Université de Genève)

- Zara Goldstone (University College London), Colonialism, Relational Inequality, and Migration Rights
- Rita Ogochukwu Ezugwu (Università degli studi di Genova), Territorial Rights: A Gender Inclusive Approach

17:15 - 18:30 Graduate Session 3

A. M6020 – Legitimacy II: Normative Issues | Chair: Matthieu Debief (Université de Genève)

- Regina Sibylle Surber (Universität Zürich), Why military Killing Condition Violates the Dignity of Soldiers
- Ivane Lomidze (Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster | Ilia State University), Realist Normativity: Back to Methodological Moralism?

B. M4220 – Climate Justice | Chair: Nenad Stojanović (Université de Genève)

- Ilias Voiron (Université Jean-Moulin-Lyon-III | Université de Fribourg), Climate Justice and Moral Burdens
- Felix Western (London School of Economics and Political Science), Irreplaceable Value and Climate Change Adaptation

☞ 17.02.2023 ☞

9:00 - 10:15 Graduate Session 4

A. M6020 – International Political Theory | Chair: Serkan Seker (Université de Genève)

- Hong Do (Central European University), The Normative Standard of International Legitimacy: Responding to the Demands of Justification from Individuals in Non-Democratic Countries
- Marzia Marastoni (The Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, Geneva), To Think or Not to Think: The Ontology of Crisis in International Law
- Camilla Barbieri (Università del Piemonte Orientale (FINO Consortium)), Can We Apply a Responsibility -Sensitive Theory of Distributive Justice to Interactions between States?

10:15 - 11:30 Graduate Session 5

A. M6020 – Justice and Institutions | Chair: Marta Giunta Martino (Université de Genève)

- Philipp Stehr (Utrecht University), How to Think about Democratizing Business Corporations
- Emanuele Martinelli (Universität Zürich), From Coordination Problems to Institutional Action. An Agent-Based Approach
- Kim Leontiev (University College London), Religious Reasons and Political Legitimacy: Can Justificatory Liberals Be Coherently Inclusivist?

☞ Conference ends with coffee and tea ☞