

GEDT WORKING PAPER SERIES

The GEDT working paper series invites contributions from ongoing interdisciplinary research at GEDT addressing current theoretical, methodological and substantive issues in environmental governance, territorial development and sustainability. The intended audience for the working paper series is primarily the academic research community. GEDT working papers are manuscripts ultimately intended for peer-review publication.

abstract

Abstract here

Keywords¹: Regulation, Disclosure, Performance management, Public management, Organisation

JEL Codes: L51, L95, D23, D78, K42

¹I gratefully acknowledge comments and suggestions from... I also thank audiences of the Conference ... Any errors remain mine.

1 Introduction

Main document here with reference in bib format. To cite: (Acemoglu and Johnson, 2005)

References

Acemoglu, D. and Johnson, S. (2005). Unbundling Institutions. Journal of Political Economy, 113(5):949–995.