

#transformative governance

#research

#complex challenges

#interdisciplinary

GTGLab Seminar

3 April 2019

12:15-13:50, GSI room 3G1

Dr. Guy Fiti Sinclair is a Senior Lecturer at Victoria University of Wellington School of Law, Associate Director of the New Zealand Centre for Public Law, and the Associate Editor of the European Journal of International Law. His principal area of teaching and research is public international law, with a focus on international organizations law, the history and theory of international law, and law and global governance. His monograph, To Reform the World: International Organizations and the Making of Modern States, was published by Oxford University Press in February 2017. He holds a Doctor of Juridical Science from New York University School of Law, where he was a Fulbright graduate scholar. He has worked for over 10 years as a corporate and commercial lawyer in leading US, English and Australasian firms. In 2011, he completed an internship with the Legal Department of the World Bank in Washington, DC.

Article : G.F. Sinclair, "Forging Modern States with Imperfect Tools: United Nations Technical Assistance for Public Administration in Decolonized States".

- . Welcome and introduction of the guest speaker, Prof. Nicolas Levrat, GTGLab Co-Director, Global Studies Institute (Moderator)
- . Comments, Yusra Suedi, PhD Candidate at the Faculty of Law of the University of Geneva (Discussant)
- . Comments, Myriam Piguet, PhD Candidate at the History Department of the University of Geneva (Discussant)
- . Response by the guest speaker
- . General debate

Designing governance to address global challenges.

GTGLab
GENEVA TRANSFORMATIVE GOVERNANCE LAB