

RENTREE 2015

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT BULLETIN

dates, information, reminders

WELCOME SESSION

Monday, 14th September, 13.45, room B 111

This session will provide useful information, and a very warm welcome, to new members of the department. It is also a chance to meet people, ask questions, and learn about the diverse extra-curricular activities on offer to students of English (the department film-club, theatre group, and journal, for example).

TP SIGN-UPS

Tuesday, 15th September, 14.30 –16.30, room B 218

Students taking BA1 and/or BA2 this year will need to sign up for a specific Travaux Pratique class or classes. Places will be allocated on a first come first served basis. This will also be an opportunity to meet the TP instructors. Drinks and nibbles provided.

LIBRARY VISITS

Thursday 24th September, Wednesday 30th September, Friday 2nd October, 12.15

Simultaneous opportunities to visit the three main reading rooms of the university libraries. Students wishing to visit more than one will need to attend on two separate dates. Guided tours will be in French. For further information:

WRITING LAB

Thursday, 1st October, room CO 213

The Writing Lab offers students one-to-one help with their written English. It will reopen on Thursday 1st October. Our monitors for the 2015-16 academic year are Olivia Lindem, who started in the Lab last semester, and Marine Chatelanat, who begins this autumn.

STUDY ABROAD

Thursday 8th October, 18.15, room B 111

The English department strongly encourages its students to spend some time in an English speaking country. This session will provide information on the different options that exist for a stay abroad: Swiss-European Mobility Programme (SEMP—formerly known as Erasmus), other exchange programmes, language assistantships. All students of the English department are invited to attend.

REMINDER

All new students should sign up to one or other of the English Department mailing lists.
