NOTED

The English department journal, Noted, is now inviting contributors for its second edition. We welcome submissions which range from the academic, to the artistic, to the witty: find previous editions at <https://www.unige.ch/lettres/angle/en/current-students/noted/> for inspiration. A more detailed call for content will be sent out soon, but in the meantime feel free to reach out to the editors at noted-lettres@unige.ch with any ideas, questions, or even completed pieces!

If you want to talk through some ideas before submitting, we will be hosting an open Zoom meeting on Tuesday 20th April at 6.00pm.
