

Workshop

“Cognitive Perspectives on Perceptual Epistemology”

University of Geneva, 29th-30th November 2011

PROGRAM

Tuesday 29th November

- 14:00-15:30 Mohan Matthen (Toronto): “How to Be Sure: Sensory Exploration and Empirical Certainty”
- 15:30-15:40 Break
- 15:40-17:10 Jérôme Dokic (Institut Jean-Nicod): “Perceptual Austerity and Feelings of Presence”
- 17:10-17:30 Coffee Break
- 17:30-19:00 Paul Coates (Hertfordshire): “What Sort of Knowledge Does Perception Yield? Theories, Functions, and Underlying Pictures”

Wednesday 30th November

- 09:00-12:30 Roundtable
- 09:00-10:00 Paul Coates, “Hallucinations and the Alleged Transparency of Perception”
- 10:00-11:00 Jérôme Dokic, TBA
- 11:00-11:20 Coffee Break
- 11:20-12:20 Mohan Matthen, “Visual Demonstratives”

Venue: Bâtiment Uni-Dufour, Room 408, Rue Général Dufour 24, 1204 Genève

The workshop is organized by Ariel Cecci, Santiago Echeverri, and the Episteme Research Group in Geneva within the FNS project Perceptual Warrant, Entitlement and A Priori Knowledge.