

Workshop on Perception and Warrant
University of Geneva, 12th May 2011

Invited speakers: Annalisa Coliva (University of Modena), Nicholas Silins (Cornell University), Ariel Cecchi (University of Geneva), Santiago Echeverri (University of Geneva)

Program:

Thursday 12th of May, Pavillon Mail, room PM15

- * 09h30-11h00 Nicholas Silins (Cornell University), "Consciousness, Attention, and Epistemology", co-authored with Susanna Siegel (Harvard University)
- * 11h15-12h30 Santiago Echeverri (University of Geneva), "Perceptual Generality and Perceptual Knowledge"
- Lunch break
- * 14h30-15h45 Ariel Cecchi (University of Geneva), "Perceptual Knowledge from a scientific perspective"
- * 16h00-17h30 Annalisa Coliva (University of Modena), "A Plea for Moderatism"

The workshop is organised by Ariel Cecchi and the Episteme Research Group in Geneva within the FNS project Perceptual Warrant, Entitlement and A Priori Knowledge.

More information:

<http://www.unige.ch/lettres/philo/episteme/>.

Attendance is free and everybody is welcome. However, if you plan to attend please send an e-mail to Ariel.Cecchi@unige.ch.